Dedication

We the Junior class of 1964 proudly dedicate our annual to the 1963 basketball team.

The 1962-63 basketball season was a very successful season. The team's record was 9 wins and 3 losses in the league. They finished the regular campaign with 16 wins and 3 losses and had 24 wins and 4 losses after their splendid tournament mark.

The first tournament victory was in a game with Anna in the County Tournament. The second victory was in a game with Houston which gave the team the County championship.

From the County Tournament the team moved on to the District Tournament where they first took on Southeastern and arose with a 75-54 victory. They were then eligible for the semi-finals where they were victorious over Piqua Catholic by a score of 77-69. The championship was the next goal which they took in a flaming 73-56 victory over the Riverside Pirates.

From there it was to the Regional Tournament for our victorious team. There they beat Sabina in a nerve-racking 71-70 overtime. The Regional Championship title was waiting to be taken by them when they downed River Valley in a 39-36 victory.

By this time the Community was behind the team and Mr. Gross all the way, and the boys were determined to take the coveted State Championship. It was off to Columbus on March 29, 1963, for the Tigers and their followers. There they met York, who was picked to take the championship. The determination of the boys was too great to be stopped by anyone, and the team downed York in a thrilling 44-40 victory. Here they were now, one rung from the top of the ladder. They were in the State Class A finals. The boys played a hard and long game with Dresden only to be beaten by two points by a last second shot. They then received the State Runner-up title.

The team members were: Terry Haas, Chet Sosby, Don Ware, Marvin Foote, John Lenhart, Tom Leininger, Dave Schaub, Rick Klopfenstein, Tom Gies, Larry Metz, Gary Gerkey, Gary Shaffer, Tom Barbee, Neal Oakley.

The managers were: Shelby Wilson, Bill Maloon, Larry Wical.

The coach: Frederick Gross.

It is to this team and coach that we proudly dedicate this 1964 annual.

In Memory of

"... A shocked and stricken world stands before the fact of death, that death brought to us through a tragically successful assault upon the life of the President of the United States. Our earliest disbelief has slowly given way to unprecedented sorrow as millions all over the world join us in lamenting a silence that can never again be broken and the absence of a smile that can never again be seen . . .

. . . Now all of a sudden, he has been taken from us and I dare say we shall never see his like again.

Many there are who will appropriately pay tribute to the President as a world figure, a tribute due him for his skill in political life and his devotion to public service.

Many others will measure the wide interests of his mind, the swiftness of his resolution, the power of his persuasion, the efficiency of his action and the courage of his conviction . . .

. . . the late President was even in death a young man - and he was proud of his youth. We can never forget the words with which he began his short term as President of the United States --

'Let the word go forth, from this time and place, to friend and foe alike that the torch has been passed to a new generation of Americans - born in this century, tempered by war, disciplined by a hard and bitter peace, proud of our American heritage . . . Let every nation know . . . that we shall pay any price, bear any burden, meet any handicap, support any friend, oppose any foe to assure the survival and success of liberty. This much we pledge and more.'

All that the young President promised in these words, he delivered before his assassination. He has written in unforgettable language his own epitaph."

Superintendent

MR. CHARLES FOSTER

This is Mr. Foster's first year here at Jackson Center High School. As superintendent he has made much progress in improving our school system.

He teaches English Literature for Seniors. We hope he enjoys his work here as much as we enjoy having him as superintendent.

Principal

MR. GLEN SMITH

This is also Mr. Smith's year as principal of Jackson Center High School.

Mr. Smith also teaches Algebra I and Bookkeeping II. He has been a member of our teaching staff for a number of years and we sincerely hope that he will remain with us for many more.

HAROLD BUTLER

Class Song

(Tune to "Tonight")

Tonight, Tonight, won't be just any night,
Tomorrow we will leave Jackson High,
Our lives will change, they'll never be the same,
But our hearts will be always so true,
To you dear Jackson for we cherish,
The memories you gave us
To reminisce about,
But our lives see the beginning of a new world
Tonight!

Second verse:

The time draws near for us to say good-by,
We'll miss the friends we've made through the years,
We'll think of all the good times we've had here,
And for us nothing can take their place,
But still the hands of time keep moving,
The hours are so fleeting,
And we must travel on,
To face a new horizon on this graduation night
Tonight!

Class Poem

This the year that we'll hold dear,
Remembering it with love and tears.
To graduate has been our goal,
From first grade onward - our chief goal.

To gain this end, we've aimed true,
Ever seeking to improve.
Moving forward, class by class,
Sharing equally, lad and lass.

Plans and dreams were all a part,
Of the hopes within our hearts,
Of Caps and Gowns we all would wear,
When diploma-time was here.

At last we've reached the Great Day,
And to you, dear school, we'll say:
That we, the Class of '64,
Love you now, and forevermore.

Mary Beireis, Susan Musser

Class History

In 1953, forty-four boys and girls climbed into a rocket on the launching pad at Jackson Center School. Mrs. Scarberry and Mrs. Turner were at the controls. Those who entered were: Dixie Ammon, Sharon Burch, Sharon Buirley, Bob Burch, Mitch Breece, Janet Clapsaddle, Marilyn Crosley, Jean Elsass, Joan Elesass, Ann Fogt, Jim Fogt, Bill Forsythe, Tom Gies, Sue Grey, Christine Charles, Valerie Herndon, Margaret Maxwell, Margaret Hutflyes, Marcia King, Marilyn Kossel, Jerold Marvin, Tom Maxwell, Judy Morris, Wanda Pollock, David Ruff, Judy Schaub, Gary Shaffer, Bill Shank, Karen Smith, Grace Taylor, David Wiessienger, Douglas Woodell, Raymond Krueger, Allan Hebb, Richard Duchak, Richard York, Charlotte Aunspaw, Bob Baughman, Marlene Coleman, Marvin Cron, Betty Foote, Gary Gerkey, Reda Gross, and Bob McName.

As we reached our second plateau, we stopped to refuel. Mrs. Bottoms and Mrs. Parker took over the controls. Mary Beireis, Barbara Gierhart, Beverley Swartz, Chris Halpin, Page McAtanney, Larry Metz, Susan Musser, and Joe Young joined us at this spot.

Landing on the third plateau, Mrs. Bottoms stayed as captain and Mrs. Fogt joined us as co-captain. At this landing we were joined by Warren Sprague, Janis Gibbs, Judy Gibbs, and Carol Reineke.

On our fourth journey, Mrs. Stewart was at the controls and Jim Shroyer, Sam Wiford, Ralph Lump, and Joe Young decided to join us.

Gliding in again for fuel, we saw Mrs. Heintz and Mrs. McGooan coming into the rocket to take over. We were joined by Joan Nichols. This year we were presented with a new rocket as we advanced to a new building.

Zooming along with Mrs. Sprague at the controls we dipped to take on four new passengers. They were: Sherrell Mattox, Leoma McKee, Bob Clemens, and a fellow passenger who liked our adventures so much, Warren Sprague, decided to rejoin us.

As our rocket sat down on plateau seven, Mr. Horvath took charge. Space travelers joining us were: Judy McGibbon and Gary Michaud.

Landing on plateau eight we picked up Richard Hinkle and John Phyllaire and resumed our journey with Mr. Fisher directing our travels. Members of this year's Junior High basketball team were Gary Gerkey, Sam Wiford, Gary Michaud, Chris Halpin, and Tom Gies. The cheerleaders were Dixie Ammon, Jean Elsass, and Karen Smith.

At last on plateau nine our goal was shining brightly Mr. Helmlinger was our instructor. Vikki Rayburn, Alvin Rostorfer, and Harold Butler joined us this year.

Those on the Reserve basketball team were Sam Wiford, Larry Metz, Gary Gerkey, and Tom Gies. Joan Nichols was our homecoming attendant, escorted by Larry Metz.

Arriving on plateau ten, Mr. Smith waited our arrival. Tom Gies was on the Varsity team this year and Sam Wiford, Gary Gerkey, and Larry Metz on the Reserves. Dixie Ammon was a Reserve cheerleader. This year we planned the Homecoming which was a great success. Marlene Coleman was our Homecoming attendant, escorted by Tom Gies.

Mr. Gross took over our space program on plateau eleven. Tom Gies, Gary Gerkey, and Larry Metz were on the Varsity with Gary Shaffer on the Reserve. The cheerleaders were Sharon Buirley, Karen Smith, and Dixie Ammon. This was the year our team was state runners-up. We were very proud and feel that our boys contributed to this accomplishment. We received our class rings this year and we all liked them very much. We published the yearbook with Leoma McKee as editor and Gary Gerkey as co-editor. Our theme for the prom was "Rhapsody in Moonlight." We feel that it was a great success. Our Junior play was entitled "Too Sweet for Sixteen." Leoma McKee was our Homecoming attendant, escorted by Jim Fogt.

At last we landed on plateau twelve, our Senior year. Mr. Holt has finished our space program for us. The boys on the basketball team were Tom Gies, Gary Gerkey, Gary Shaffer, and Larry Metz. The Varsity cheerleaders were Dixie Ammon, and Sharon Buirley. The Reserves were Carol Reineke and Karen Smith. Our magazine sales were a great success. Our Senior year was completed by the class play, Homecoming, prom, graduation, and the class trip. Those who journeyed twelve years together were: Karen Smith, Bob Baughman, Margaret Maxwell, Dixie Ammon, Sharon Buirley, Bob Burch, Marlene Coleman, Marilyn Crosley, Jean Elsass, Joan Elsass, Ann Fogt, Jim Fogt, Betty Foote, Bill Forsythe, Gary Gerkey, Tom Gies, Valerie Herndon, Marcia King, Marilyn Kossel, Tom Maxwell, Judy Schaub, Gary Shaffer, Bill Shank, and Grace Taylor.

This year's TIGERS finished the basketball season with 8 wins and 11 losses. In league games they won 4 and lost 8 finishing in fifth place. Although this year's record is not as good as it was last year, we feel that the team did well. Many of the games lost were only by a few points and some in overtime. The entire school is proud of them and wish them the best of luck in the future years.
